

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

A SWEET AUTUMNAL MEMORY.

When the autumn skies are gray and the earth is turning brown,
And the leaves in golden showers from the trees are falling down,
Memory on its silent pinions wings away toward the days
When the sun of youth was shedding on our head its golden rays.
We can see the shocks of fodder standing just as when we left,
See the chipmunks holding acorns in their claws so sharp and deft,
Hear the hick'ry nuts come falling from the grand old shellbark trees
When their limbs were softly shaken by the fingers of the breeze.
We can hear the turkeys gobbling in the barnyard 'cross the lane,
Hear the humming of the thrashers pounding out the golden grain,
See the yellow old cow pumpkins lying thick upon the ground,
With the stubble of the cornstalks sharply hedging them around.
But the very sweetest music that came to our boyish ears,
Music that has clung unto us through the intervening years,
Was the music that was started by the antics of the breeze—
Hick'ry nuts a rattling downward from the shaggy shellbark trees.
How as wild, shock-headed youngsters, hardy products of the farm,
Hasten to the near-by woodland, pillowslips hung on our arms,
Lading echoes with our laughter, answering the bob-white's call,
When the frost was on the fences and the nuts began to fall.
Busy were our little fingers as we filled the muslin slips,
Rude, at times, the exclamations that would ripple from our lips.
As we'd pry the bold intruders, saucy well-dressed boys from town,
Out among the shellbark hick'rys when the nuts were falling down.
Looking back o'er life so riddled with its pleasures and its pains,
With its seasons glad with sunshine and its days of chilling rains,
Like an ever-sparkling jewel in the memory crown ablaze
Comes the joyous recollection of those careless boyhood days:
Comes a picture of the farmhouse, of the crooked old rail fence,
Of the saucy squirrels barking in the wood so deep and dense,
Of the leaves so softly rustling when disturbed by passing breeze,
And the hick'ry nuts a falling from the grand old shellbark trees.

MR. JOSEPH F. PERRIE.

After a protracted illness of many months, Mr. Joseph F. Perrie passed away at his home in East Third street last night at ten minutes to 9 o'clock.

For the past thirty years he had been identified with the business interest and success of this city, and was at all times ready to assist in the progress and up-building of his adopted home.

Mr. Perrie was born in the town of Washington March 5th, 1832, where he continued to reside until his coming here.

March 11th, 1873, he was married to Lemira M., daughter of Dr. Basil Duke of Mayslick.

In the 70's he rode as Deputy with Sheriff Perry Jefferson after which he was elected High Sheriff for two terms.

At the organization of the First National Bank he was given a position which he held for many years. He left the First National to take the position of Cashier with the Bank of Mitchell, Finch & Co., with which institution he remained until the day of his death.

Mr. Perrie leaves a devoted and affectionate wife to mourn his loss as well as two brothers, Mr. Frank Perrie of Dover and Mr. Charles T. Perrie of Little Rock, Ark.

The funeral arrangements had not been decided at the time THE LEDGER went to press, further than that the interment will be in the Maysville Cemetery and Rev. R. E. Moss will officiate.

PALE FACES

BY SOME THOUGHT TO DENOTE REFINEMENT.

"What a mistake!" said Mr. Pecor, our leading druggist. "In place of refinement pale faces denote disease."

"A bloodless face indicates impoverished blood, pure and simple."

"What is the result? A weakened condition of the entire system, the development of humors, disfiguring eruptions and finally a general collapse."

"I wish your paper would tell every pale man, woman and child; yes, and every feeble old person, that I am so sure that our famous cod liver oil preparation, Vinol (delicious to taste, and without oil), will make rich, red blood, create strength and restore them to a normal condition, that I will pay for all the Vinol they take if it does not succeed."

"Why am I so sure? Simply because I have seen it succeed so many times that I now don't believe it can fail. You see it contains in a highly concentrated form all of the vital principles of cod liver oil, without any grease to upset the stomach. We know that it is fresh and actually does contain the fifty odd medicinal curatives taken from fresh cods' livers, and it is the real thing, as the boys say. We do not ask you to take our word for it, but simply try it on our guarantee." J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

Ray's fine Chocolates are the best.

A Good Name.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge or weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Blankets...

Best to have them in reserve against sudden cold weather. After thoughts are apt to be melted out of icy experience. Buying blankets is a riskless proceeding here. Prices are very reasonable. Accurate details follow.

Cotton blankets for 59c in gray or white. A better quality for 75c in gray, brown or white and a still better for $1.

Other desirable sorts are—
The Favorite for $3½ pair, weight 4 lbs., size 60x82 inches, four parts wool, one part cotton.

The Homestead for $4 pair, weight 5 lbs., size 72x84 inches, fine wool filling, spool cotton warp.

The Satisfaction at $5 pair, weight 5 lbs., size 72x84 inches, all wool in warp and filling. This blanket is a very popular seller but we won't test your credulity by stating the number sold in a season, as it is inconceivable for retailers and a town this size.

The Old Kentucky for $6 pair, weight 5 lbs., size 72x84 in., fine all wool filling and warp.

The Superlative for $7½ pair, weight 6½ lbs., size 72x84 in., extra fine wool filling and warp.

HELEN GRANTLY'S ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement of Miss Helen Grantly at the Washington Opera-house on Monday, November 16th, should prove to be unusually interesting, as it will introduce Lorrimer Stoddard's romantic play, "In the Palace of the King," the vehicle in which Miss Viola Allen starred for two years. It was first produced in New York in September, 1900, and was so successful that it ran for 200 nights. As every theatre-goer knows, "In the Palace of the King" was dramatized from F. Marion Crawford's story of the same name. Many plays have been thus evolved from books but they have been of crude and careless construction. Not so with Mr. Crawford's story, however, as it is conceded to be the most powerful and convincing stage story seen in years.

THE HOME OF THESE DOLLS is a little village in Germany, where an old German named Kurtz, famous for doll making, his father and his father's father made dolls, and now his children and his grandchildren are learning. We gave the order to his son to send them direct to us, and now you wonder how we out found this little doll home; but that's our secret. JUDGE HARBESON's majority is anywhere from 95 to 97; but ED. DAUM—well, what do you think of DAUM, anyhow?

ED. DAUM, the great Unbeaten, is THE LEDGER's nominee for Governor—if the Republicans of Kentucky want to win the next election.

REPEATERS, bogus registrations and ballot-box thieves have saved CHARLIE PINTS the trouble of electing the Democratic state officers by count.

JUDGE BENNETT is to be congratulated on his splendid race against one of the most popular gentlemen in Kentucky for the Circuit Judgeship.

THE HON. JUNIUS PLUVIUS TARVIN, the political orator-Judge of Covington, will now have more time to manipulate Democrat Conventions and abuse Republicans from the raging stump. He is to be succeeded on the Bench by Hon. W. McD. SHAW, a Republican.

IN the person of Colonel WILLIAM J. WORTHINGTON of Greenup the Republicans will have one man in the Kentucky House that the Goebelites can't bulldoze.

DEFEATED but not demolished. CHARLEY DEGMAN will continue to raise the biggest punkins in the county and THE LEDGER will carry on business at the old stand.

IF TOM JOHNSON will come over to Kentucky and run for Governor on the Democratic ticket, he might pull through. Any old thing suits the machine-made majority in this state.

'TAINT so bad that it couldn't be worse. The Republicans carried the Eleventh District, anyhow; and down in this neck o' the woods we'll have Cox in the Senate—and then just think of ED. DAUM the great Unbeatable of Bracken!

Political Pickings

THE WALKING DELEGATE.

New York World.

The Plasterers' Society of this city has taken what seems to be a sensible step in arranging to dispense with its four Walking Delegates and to abolish the office.

The President of the society, as is right and proper, will receive a salary and his expenses, and will do the work commonly apportioned to the "business agents." Why should he not? The most important business of a Union is its dealing with employers. Why should not that work be done by its highest officer?

If the plan now adopted by the plasterers had been last spring the rule of the house-smiths there would have been no "Sam Parks issue," and the workmen of this city would have been better off by many millions of dollars.

WE TOLD YOU SO!

Smith's Ticket is a Winner

A large majority have declared for the $150 Gift-Giving Affair at W. R. SMITH & CO.'S, and attest their approval of the plan by a liberal patronage. The New Shoe Store's canvassing board will issue a certificate with each 50c cash purchase.

Mr. George F. Bateman, formerly of Lewisburg, was defeated in his race for Representative from Fayette county by a Democratic majority of 432.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

A GREAT TRUTH.

How It Has Spread From Home to Home in Maysville.

In every part of Maysville; in the homes of the wealthy; in the humble abode of the man of toil 'tis now a well-known fact—a great truth—that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort to backache sufferers and cured more sick kidneys than any medicine of modern times.

Mrs. M. C. Chisholm of 343 East Second street says: "Mr. Chisholm speaks in high terms of Doan's Kidney Pills. He procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use proved them to be an effective kidney remedy. I have heard others express their appreciation of Doan's Kidney Pills. A medicine which cures kidney trouble is a most desirable one of which to know."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

From the Atchison (Kan.) Daily Globe. This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and told, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root, pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured.
